Bulletin: No. 2021-29

Subject: Amendment to Minimum Standards for Training, Regulation 1005 – Force Options Simulator (FOS) and Law Enforcement Driving Simulators (LEDS)

The Office of Administrative Law approved the attached regulatory actions to Section 1005 amending requirements for Minimum Standards for Training.

The first action, approved on June 29, 2021, removes language from Regulation 1005 that allows the use of Law Enforcements Driving Simulators (LEDS) as an approved method of instructions to fulfill the Driver Training/Awareness Perishable Skills requirement. The Notice of Approval (pdf), which includes the approved text may be accessed on the POST Website. This action went into effect immediately on June 29, 2021.

The second action, approved on July 1, 2021, removes language from Regulation 1005 allowing the use of Force Options Simulator (FOS) as an approved method of instruction to fulfill the Tactical Firearms Perishable Skills requirement. The Notice of Approval (pdf), which includes the approved text may be accessed on the POST Website. This action went into effect immediately on July 1, 2021.
